From this week's Uniting News Reflecton- Called to be free

Hear the good news! We have been set free by Jesus Christ and there is a purpose to our holy freedom!

What have we been set free from? From the burdens of sin and guilt, and from the burdensome expectations that society places on us, and we place upon ourselves. This is freedom from the smothering blanket of conformity, demands, guilt and manipulation; freedom from the desperate and hopeless quest to be 'good enough'; freedom from the demands of competition and comparison; freedom from the need to be hurtful and harmful to those who 'get in our way'. This freedom is a calling, and something we must live in to. At times we do fall back into fear and slavery, but the Spirit always leads us on in the Christ-formed pattern of overcoming that God named as discipleship.

As disciples of Jesus Christ, we are loved and forgiven; dearly cherished by God; called to a holy purpose; free for freedom's sake. The freedom to do what? To do good. To bless, to encourage, to mend, to heal, to lift up, to serve others humbly in love (Gal 5:13). We have been freed to set others free. What a precious gift this is, and how easy it often is to do good. One small kind word or act, can make someone's day. What good have you been set free to do today?

Adam Tipple is the Presbytery Chairperson, The Presbytery of The Downs.

This week's Moderator's Prayer

Father God, thank you that you are our shepherd in these difficult times. Look after those in our communities affected by the floods and rain. Help them feel the love and support of their communities. Help them know your protection, your power and your presence, always with them. Keep them safe.

God of peace, look after all those in Ukraine touched by violence and aggression. Guide them and protect them, and bring hope to their hearts. Teach us all the miraculous path from war to peace. Keep them safe.

Guide us through the storms, knowing you are with us. Guide us each day through the dark valleys to rest in green pastures.

Blessings, Andrew Gunton Moderator

Next Church Council meeting Saturday 26th March at the church

Our prayers go out to all those affected by the floods, including those who haven't been able to get needed supplies from chemists and supermarkets

For I know the plans I have for you, says the Lord.
"They are plans for good and not for disaster, to give you a future and a hope."
Jeremiah 29:11 (NLT)
