5 DEADLY TERMS USED BY A WOMAN

#1 Fine
 This is the word women use to end an argument when she knows she is right and you need to stop talking.

#2 Nothing
 Means something and you should be worried.

#3 Go Ahead
 Do NOT confuse this with permission!
 It's a dare and don't even think about it.

#4 Whatever
 A woman's way of calling you an idiot.

#5 That's OK
 She is thinking long and hard on how and when you will pay for your mistake.

BONUS WORD: WOW!
 This is not a compliment. She is amazed that one person could be so clueless.

Third Sunday after Pentecost 9th June 1 Sam 8:4-11, (12-15), 16-20, (11:14-15) Psalm 138 2 Corinthians 4:13-5:1 Mark 3:20-35	4 th Sunday after Pentecost 16th June 1 Samuel 15:34-16:13 Psalm 20 2 Corinthians 5:6-10,[11-13],14-17 Mark 4:26-34

Sunday 9th June - 8:30 am Rev Jan Rossow

Sunday 16th June -8:30 am Rev Darren King

These sentences actually appeared in church bulletins or were announced at church services:

Don't let worry kill you off - let the Church help.

Miss Charlene Mason sang 'I will not pass this way again', giving obvious pleasure to the congregation.

For those of you who have children and don't know it, we have a nursery downstairs.st-----

Next Thursday there will be tryouts for the choir. They need all the help they can get.

Irving Benson and Jessie Carter were married on October 24 in the church. So ends a friendship that began in their school days.

A bean supper will be held on Tuesday evening in the church hall. Music will follow.

And finally

I wanted to get my pants hemmed quickly, so I called Taylor Swift I finally watched the documentary on clocks – it was about time

A tombstone with a typo? Well, that's a grave mistake

My wife and I can't count calories and we have the figures to prove it I made a chicken salad last night – apparently they prefer grain

Storm-proofed for life

“Why do you call me, ‘Lord, Lord’ and do not do what I say” Luke 6:46

Remember the words of the old Sunday school song. “The wise man built his house upon the Rock...The foolish man built his house upon the sand” The storm hit both houses leaving only the wise man’s house standing. Jesus wasn’t simply recommending the virtues of wisdom over foolishness. The truth is, we’re all wise at times and foolish at others. And He wasn’t saying the house that survived the storm was a believer’s house while the house that perished belonged to an unbeliever. Neither was He implying that the church attender’s house withstood the storm while the non-attender’s house collapsed. His point was simpler- and more compelling. When things are at their worst and we are pushed to the wall, when we doubt our chances of survival, when we have used up our last ounce of resistance, it’s not our wisdom, salvation, or church attendance that gets us through the storm. While these are crucially important aspects of Christian life for which we praise God, many wise, faithful believers go under in life’s storms: an abusive relationship, a financial collapse, an unfaithful partner, the loss or illness of a child, a mental or physical disability. Jesus’ point wasn’t ever a plea for increased knowledge of His Word. Both homeowners understood His Word, but simply saying “Lord I totally agree with you” won’t get you through the storm! God has bound Himself to honour His Word, and your obedience aligns you with it and activates His power on your behalf.
