

When one door closes, and another door opens, you are probably in prison.
 Age 60 might be the new 40, but 8:00pm is the new midnight.
 The older I get, the earlier it gets late.
 When I say, "The other day," I could be referring to any time between yesterday and 15 years ago.
 I had my patience tested. I'm negative.
 Remember, if you lose a sock in the dryer, it comes back as a Tupperware lid that doesn't fit any of your containers.
 When you ask me what I'm doing today, and I say "nothing," it does not mean I am free to help you, it just means I am doing nothing.
 I hate when a couple argues in public, and I missed the beginning and don't know whose side I'm on.
 I don't mean to interrupt people; I just randomly remember things and get really excited.
 When I ask for directions, please don't use words like "East."
 Don't bother walking a mile in my shoes. That would be boring.
 Spend 30 seconds in my head, and that'll freak you out.
 My luck is like a bald guy that just won a comb.

Life is short...be the girl on the left...

*LORD God, do as You promised.
(2 Samuel 7:25)*

God's promises were never meant to be thrown aside as waste paper. He intended them to be used. Nothing pleases our Lord better than to see His promises active in our lives. He loves to see His children bring them up to Him, and say, "Lord, do as You have promised." We glorify God when we plead His promises. Do you think that God will be any the poorer for giving you the riches He promised? Do you dream He will be any the less holy for giving holiness to you? Do you imagine He will be any the less pure for washing you from your sins? He has said, "Come now, let us reason together. Though your sins are like scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they are red as crimson, they shall be like wool."³³ Faith lays hold upon the promise of pardon, and goes straight to the throne with it, and pleads, "Lord, here is Your promise, 'Please, do as You promised.'" To which our Lord replies, "Your request is granted."³⁴ When you get hold of a promise, if you don't take it to God, you dishonor Him. Our heavenly Banker is delighted to cash His own promissory notes. God will not be troubled by your persistently reminding Him of His promises. It is His delight to bestow favors on His children. He is more ready to hear than you are to ask. It is God's nature to keep His promises. Go at once, therefore, to the throne with "Please do as You promised."³⁵
